Dr. Martin L. King Jr. Memorial Luncheon

The NAACP Salt Lake Branch cordially invites you to attend the 35th Annual
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Memorial Luncheon

Monday, January 21, 2019
Reception: 11:00 a.m. – 11:45
Luncheon: 12:00 noon
Little America Hotel Ballroom
500 South Main
Salt Lake City, Utah

Speaker: Cedric M. Powell

Cedric Merlin Powell received his B.A. with Honors in Politics from Oberlin College in 1984 and his J.D. in 1987 from New York University School of Law, where he served as Managing Editor of The N.Y.U. Review of Law and Social Change.

He is a member of the Ohio and New York state bars, and is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States and the federal courts of the Second and Sixth Circuits, and the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

Professor Powell has written over a broad range of topics including affirmative action and Critical Race Theory, the First Amendment and hate speech, and the Fourteenth Amendment and structural inequality. All of his scholarship critiques neutrality as a means of preserving structural inequality, and advances theories of substantive equality which reject colorblindness and post-racialism as normative principles in constitutional analysis

Awards to be presented:

The Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Award will be presented to Andy Noorda, Trustee of the Ray and Tye Noorda Foundation

Andy has a long history as a philanthropist, following in the footsteps of his father and mother, the late Ray and Tye Noorda, founders of the Ray and Tye Noorda Charitable Foundation. Andy co-founded Wholistic Research and Education Foundation and Mana Artisan Botanics.

The Rosa Parks Award will be presented to Sandra Hollins

Sandra is a member of the Utah State House of Representatives and represents House District 23. Sandra is the first African American woman to serve in the Utah State Legislature.

First Responders Awards will be presented for outstanding community service NAACP Scholarship Donors

NAACP Scholarships: CR England, Gordon & Connie Hanks, Hires Big H, Shawn and Tory Newell Family Scholarship, Smith's Food and Drug, and Utah Jazz Scholarships will be presented to Utah High School and College Students.
